

JOHN PORCARI

MA

John Porcari is the Consulting Practice Leader for Third River Partners and works with senior executives and their teams to achieve dramatic positive results in their organizations. John brings a deep experience across a variety of industries including hospital and healthcare, consumer packaged goods, specialty retail, financial services, high tech and manufacturing. John has a passion for developing leaders to achieve the outcomes which matter most to them, their teams, their organization and their families.

Typical projects have included:

- Change Leadership
- Serving Leader Development for Individuals and Teams
- Creating Coaching Capability in Leaders
- Senior Executive Coaching
- Business Culture Improvement

John has worked in a wide variety of industries and client settings:

Johns Hopkins Medicine, The Cleveland Clinic, University of Pittsburgh Medical Center, AtlantiCare Health System, Fresenius Medical Care, Genesis Healthcare, Lancaster General Hospital, Mercy Hospital, American Medical Systems, MEDRAD, Highmark Blue Cross Blue Shield, Aetna Incorporated, Hershey Foods, Giant Eagle, H.J. Heinz, Campbell Soups, Kemps Incorporated, American Eagle Outfitters, FedEx, Vocollect, Mascaro Construction, PNC Bank, Mellon Financial Services, Education Management Corporation, Bethlehem Steel, Yahoo!, Siebel Systems, Marriott, and Equitable Resources

Previously, John was a senior Human Performance executive for the global consulting firm Accenture; the Director of Performance Strategy and Solutions at Five Star Development; served as Distinguished Faculty for The Cleveland Clinic Physician's Academy and a Human Resources Officer at Aetna Incorporated.

John holds a MA in Instructional Design, Development and Evaluation from Syracuse University, and a BA in History from State University New York College at Cortland.

He is active in his community, volunteering his time with organizations that are focused on building strong families. John and his wife, Mary Beth, are also active foster and adoptive parents.

Email: john@3rd-river.com

Phone: 866-737-8268